“THE PROBLEM IS THAT WHEN WE SPEAK ABOUT OURSELVES, WE ARE VICTIMS. WHEN WE START TALKING ABOUT OTHERS, WE START TO BECOME LEADERS. WE START TO MAKE CHANGE. “In a city that’s made for elites and corporations, really poor people have been able to survive. And not only that, but resist, powerfully. Resist oppression, resist the neglect the government has handed out to our communities. We’re becoming more powerful with every generation.” – Darian Agostini, Make The Road NY. "It's not really a surprise that women's reproductive issues are tied to racism and money and power. These are just ideological pushes in order to further polarize the voting base at a great cost to women, and it's not based in science or medicine – it's based in religious philosophy and dogma." – Jex Blackmore, activist, artist and Satanist.
